

The logo features the word "Spoons?" in a white, elegant cursive script. The letter "s" at the end of "Spoons" is stylized to resemble a spoon, with its bowl forming the letter's terminal and its handle curving upwards to form a question mark. Below this, the words "MOUNT LAVINIA" are written in a smaller, white, all-caps sans-serif font.

Spoons?
MOUNT LAVINIA

ASIAN

A dark, monochromatic photograph of a city skyline at night, with numerous skyscrapers illuminated by lights. The lights are reflected in a body of water in the foreground. The overall tone is dark and atmospheric.
